Faculty

Knowledge is key to achieving your life goals, and at DSU you'll acquire the education and skills you need to be a competitive force in today's changing global job market. Whether you're preparing for a career in international relations through one of our study-abroad programs, looking to hone your talents as a music major or learning the latest technology in applied optics, DSU has a dedicated faculty and challenging curriculum to empower you for life's road ahead. Most DSU students will agree that our world-renowned faculty helps set us apart from other colleges and universities. We have some of the most knowledgeable and dedicated instructors in higher education today. In fact, our 199 faculty members, spread over 20 departments, hold a total of 160 doctoral degrees, and 38 have reached the rank of full professor.

Our faculty's years of practical experience help DSU students connect what they learn in the classroom to their chosen major's applications in industry and everyday life. Our 19:1 student-to-faculty ratio ensures that you'll get the attention you need to grasp the concepts and theories in your discipline.

Learn a new scientific approach in one of our state-of-the-art laboratories in the Mishoe Science Center, or discover a love for Harlem Renaissance poetry in an English class in the Education and Humanities Building. The range of disciplines and learning opportunities is vast, and discovering your niche at DSU can lead to a world of exciting career options. Choose any one of nearly 70 academic paths and embark upon a journey that will lead to a competitive and adventurous career.
