

Musical Groups

Concert Band

The band plays for Delaware State University's opening convocation and other important events. Membership is open to students who qualify by auditioning with the band director.

Concert Choir

The choir sings at Delaware State University's opening convocation and other important events. The choir consists of a selected group of mixed voices. Membership is open to all students who qualify by auditioning with the choir director.

Gospel Choir

The DSU Gospel Choir provides a spiritual outlet for students to learn about the fundamentals of music and about the evolution of gospel music. The members of the choir perform a variety of concerts, both on and off campus. The choir participates in at least one annual tour (usually the Atlanta National Gospel workshop and Competition). The gospel choir is open to all students who seek spiritual inspiration in song.

Jazz Ensemble

This ensemble includes selected student musicians who play for various occasions on and off campus. Membership is open to all students who qualify by auditioning with the band director.

The Approaching Storm Marching Band

The band performs for DSU athletic events. Membership is open to all students who qualify by auditioning with the band director.

Source URL: <http://desu.edu/musical-groups#comment-0>