Student Media

Hornet Newspaper

The Hornet newspaper covers news that is important to Delaware State University. It provides experience in related areas of journalism to all interested students. The organization is responsible for publishing at least one issue of The Hornet every month of the academic year.

Statesmen Yearbook

This organization wishes to promote school pride and unity at Delaware State University. It produces a very high quality yearbook the students of DSU can be proud to share with others. It promotes pride through various community service activities and fund-raisers.

WDSU Radio

This organization is primarily concerned with initiating and furthering the creative and technical potential of its members is radio medium. The members of this organization are allowed the opportunity to expand their creative abilities to radio as well as promote the teaching of technical skills in broadcasting as a career or exploratory experience.

WDSU-TV

This organization features programs written, directed, and produced by DSU students. Membership is open to all students who audition for on-air or behind-the-scenes positions. The Mass Communication Society oversees the station operations.

Source URL: http://desu.edu/student-media