

Faculty Senate

On behalf of the Delaware State University Faculty Senate, "Welcome!" Faculty participation in the shared governance of DSU is more important than ever. As the chair of the faculty senate I ask that you stay involved with the vital issues facing the University. In our goal to go paperless, the minutes, proposals, reports, upcoming agenda, etc. are posted for your examination on the Faculty Senate Forum on Blackboard.

If your department has not already, please forward the names of your Faculty Senator(s) and alternate(s) for the current academic year to me (jblade@desu.edu [1]) and the Vice Chair, Myna German (mgerman@desu.edu [2]). Stephanie Milbourne is the Senate recorder (smilbourne@desu.edu [3]).

Several openings are available on our senate committees. These committees are an excellent opportunity for every faculty member to provide service and leadership to the university, get to know other faculty and staff, and do the valuable work of the faculty senate. Email the me to get involved. Your service counts.

Respectfully submitted,

Jan Blade, Chair, Faculty Senate.

FROM THE BY-LAWS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, DELAWARE STATE UNIVERSITY

Unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Trustees, authority is hereby delegated to the university faculty to develop and administer the academic and educational policies of the university in accordance with the provisions of the following regulations.

The Faculty shall:

- Establish departmental curricula and courses.
- Develop rules, regulations and discipline for the student body.
- Determine educational academic policies of admission.
- Determine requirements for degrees and recommend candidates for degrees, which shall be conferred by the President of the University under the authority of the Board of Trustees.
- It shall be the privilege of the faculty:
- To recommend to the Board of Trustees the establishment of any degree to be awarded and the disestablishment of any degree.
